

Two-day International Conference on

The Legacy of Muhammad Hamidullah and Its Contemporary Relevance

on February 17-18, 2017

at

Conference Hall, FTK-CIT, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi

RESOLUTIONS

The Institute of Objective Studies, New Delhi has organized an international conference on “The Legacy of Muhammad Hamidullah and Its Contemporary Relevance” on February 17-18, 2017 at New Delhi. The conference has attracted an impressive number of scholars and faculty members etc. The deliberations have been fruitful and meaningful particularly from the point of their relevance to modern times.

The conference has adopted the following resolutions with a purpose and intention to carry them forward with complete sincerity and commitment.

1. This programme of covering intellectual heritage of prominent scholars may be taken up by the IOS on regular basis. A special cell may be created to carry out the scheme.
2. The IOS may try to enter into agreements with sister organizations in India and abroad to carry the message forward.
3. IOS may sponsor a scheme to take up research and translation of prominent works in different languages of distinguished scholars. Certain schemes may be drawn to popularize important persons and their works. Case studies may be initiated by inviting experts.
4. Islamic universities may be requested to create chairs in the name of Dr. M. Hamidullah so that younger generations would be able to understand correct message and evolution of Islamic thought.

5. Internal conflicts within the Muslim ummah and differences with others may be eliminated and approach of accommodation based on Islamic principles may be augmented.
6. Strategies may be developed not with a denial mode and mood, but with utmost positive attitude to create unity of mankind.
7. Index and encyclopedia on different areas should be prepared and disseminated with the help of modern technology.
8. A specific chair may be created in IOS in the name of Dr. M. Hamidullah to take a stock of his works and draw conclusions and hence their propagation.
9. Preparation of literature may be made by concerned organizations for youth and women in terms of the spirit of Qur'anic messages.
10. Seeing that many works of Dr. M. Hamidullah and other great scholars are out of print, this conference resolves and urges scholars and institutions including IOS to make efforts for reprinting them so these are made available as well as preserved.
11. The Muslim ummah has produced towering personalities whose writings and messages are relevant in our time also. This conference resolves and urges scholars, institutions and centres of Islamic studies in universities to organize seminars/conferences on such great personalities with a view to highlighting and spreading their universal message.
12. This conference resolves to make arrangement for translating the French works of Dr. Hamidullah into English and Urdu for the benefit of a larger audience.
13. This conference resolves and urges the IOS to make efforts to set up Dr. Hamidullah fellowships to encourage scholarly works on Islamic manuscripts and classical books.